CHINA
AND
NEW ZEALAND
BUSINESS
COUNCIL

Who We Are

The China and New Zealand Business Council (canz_{bc}) is a membership-based incorporated organisation.

We provide a point of contact for individuals and organisations engaged in doing business with China or who are planning to enter the China market.

Our services include building your organisation's capabilities in conducting business in China, extending your staff's knowledge and appreciation of the people and culture of China, helping you identify new business opportunities, and avoiding commercial pitfalls.

What We Do

We aim to support trading relations between China and New Zealand by:

Providing a network of business and official contacts to facilitate members entering the market

Hosting delegations to and from China to create business and networking opportunities

Playing an advocacy role on trade policies and related legal issues of the two countries

Organising forums, seminars and conferences on topical issues and trade developments

Organising expos and exhibitions to promote trade and investment opportunities

Organising trade delegations to participate in expos and exhibitions in China

Conducting training on doing business with China, including business strategies, etiquettes and networking

Providing market information, economic statistics and success stories

Providing one on one consultancy to address members' specific needs
